Compressed Beer the Latest.

Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 28.—The obstacles prohibition enforcement officers encounter in Oklahoma never are lacking. The latest one the beer makers have attempted to put over is "compressed" beer.

An agent for this new compound dropped into the office of the county attorney in Muskogee county and showed him a small can which he said contained compressed beer. The can was the size of a half-pound tobacco can.

'Put this in a gallon of hot water until it dissolves, then add eleven gallons of water and a cake of yeast, let it stand forty days and you have beer. Now can I sell that to individuals in their homes and escape prosecution under the Oklahoma law? was the question he put up to the county attorney.

The county attorney side stepped by showing the agent the law and telling him he would consider prosecution after the agent had started someone making his own private stock of beer.

A Slap At Miss Keeter

When the summer sky is azure blue, when your heart is light and your love is true, when your sole idea of a joyous lark is a slender waist in a spot quite dark; when you have the place, the girl and that, and you're sitting there for a quiet chat; can you recall in your young life of such anger deep, or a wrath so rife when with a fearful ire your arms you fling to anticipate the mosquitoes' sting? When you scratch and thrash and slap and swear, and you claw and slash and he's not there. If you want relief invest a quarter, and Hike Mosquito will complete the slaughter.—Mudyard Dipling.

JOHN AND FRANK SCRIBNER RETURN

John and Frank Scribner, who suddenly decamped during the progress of the trial of Dan Scribner at We-woka, came in yesterday and surrendered. They were taken to We-woka by Deputy Sheriff Duncan and lodged in jail to await a review of their case by Judge McKeown. The maximum penalty for contempt of court is a fine of $100 and ten days in jail.

These much wanted witnesses have been sojourning in Arkansas since their disappearance about ten days ago.

NEGRO KIDNAPS CHILD AT COLBERT

Durant, Okla., Aug. 27.—A report reached here late Saturday night that an unknown negro had kidnapped a white boy at Colbert, fifteen miles south of Durant, and when pursued by the father of the child and neighbors, he threw the child into the Red river and escaped. The sheriff of the county and a posse were searching for the negro but had not captured him at an early hour Sunday morning.

The child was playing in the yard of its parents at Colbert, who, according to the report, are wealthy, when the negro came into the yard, and without a word of warning seized the child and ran away from the town toward the Red River. The parents of the child and neighbors heard the screams of the little one and soon were in pursuit. When the Red river was reached the negro seeing his pursuers threw the child into one of the branches which enters it and escaped. The child was rescued.

A posse was formed immediately when the report reached Colbert of the kidnapping and started in pursuit of the negro. They were joined by the sheriff of Durant and were out until early Sunday morning without success.

The name of the child is given as Wilkerson, and is 2 years old. The man who forced the negro to throw the child into the river is given as Bohannon. The motive for the kidnapping is unknown.

"WHO'S WHO" IN STATE OF OKLAHOMA

Oklahoma City, Aug. 28.—Who is who in Oklahoma?

At first thought that would appear to be a question easily answered, when considered from the standpoint of a resident of the state of Oklahoma. A citizen of this state who has ordinary intelligence and who constantly reads the newspapers would answer it with a list of the state officials, the most prominent city officials, congressman and such other men as constantly are in the public eye. The citizen would be right from his standpoint.

But there is another standpoint from which to consider who is who, that of the national level. The question then becomes who is who in America, and it is answered each year in the blue book publication of that title. The first of Oklahomans eligible for record on that list would vary a great deal from the one picked out by any citizen of the state.

In the 1910-1911 publication of 'Who's Who in America there are a the country, more are residents of Oklahoma City than of any other city. They are seventeen in number; Muskogee is second with eight, and Guthrie is third with seven. The others come from twenty-three other cities and towns.

Outside of Oklahoma City the list is given by the alphabetical order of the cities and towns. First is C. A. Galbraith, jurist of Ada.

Moving Town on Flat Cars.

Grand Junction, Colo., Aug. 28.—The entire town of Dragon is to be moved twelve miles as the result of the completion of the Unitah railway.

Dragon, now boasting 600 inhabitants, will be moved bodily in flat cars to Temple, which will be the new town. Houses, railroad shops, stores and all are to be transported. The cost will run into thousands of dollars but the railroad officials claim that it will be cheaper in the end to have their facilities at Temple.

The Dragon people are opposing the move, but if the railroad shops and roundhouses are removed, the rest of the city will follow suit. Negotiations are now in progress for the removal of the roundhouse and other equipment. The new town site is in Utah and Dragon will no longer be a postoffice in Colorado.

A crowd that went down the country a few days ago to recuperate a little and commune with nature, returned about noon today. As they had no tent and only one wagon sheet under which seven or eight had to take shelter last night in the rain, it can be readily imagined that their enjoyment was not altogether unalloyed. The savage frame of mind in which they have been this afternoon makes it unsafe for the reporter to go into further details.

OKLAHOMA CITY'S FREE PAPERS ARE DEAD

Oklahoma City, Aug. 28.—The long drawn out newspaper war among the newspapers of this city ended Saturday. The "Pointer," morning, and "Free Press," evening free distribution sheets, passed away. The going will mark the end of all free distribution sheets in Oklahoma, so far as standing or character be concerned. The "Pointer" was by far the greatest free distribution publication in the Southwest and its support came high placing this in the second place among Oklahoma municipalities. In supporting the free distributed newspaper, the merchants of the metropolis bore down all of the prestige held by its real newspapers and left no opportunity for advancement or advertising of the city abroad.

When the "Pointer" made inroads on the Oklahoman prestige the latter publication put on the "Free Press," an afternoon paper with full Associated Press report and gave possibly the best press report paper in the state. From that moment the war of destruction commenced, the publishers of real newspapers demanded that the people of Oklahoma City say whether or not they would support real papers, or consent to allow advertising sheets which can not circulate outside of the city to kill off the prospects of municipal growth. Thousands and thousands of dollars were lost, and it was not until the advertising men of the city awakened to the fact that the free distribution sheets had brought on a financial depression, that they acted.

The Chamber of commerce finally decided that it was ill-advised to give advertising to newspapers which did not leave the city limits, and from that moment the free papers were doomed.

A few days ago the Pointer gasped for breath, asked the real newspaper publisher to take over its mortgaged machinery and allow it to die a decent death. The same request had occurred before, but because the Oklahoman was running a free afternoon edition, nothing could be done, and not until Gaylord and Stafford were made conscious that their illegitimate offspring must go, was the public funeral of the two town destroyers announced.

The business and professional men of Oklahoma City had stated that they will permit no more of free distribution sheets after that date, and all is ready for the final ringdown of the most despicable and destructive attempt to ruin the newspaper business ever attempted in the Southwest; for free distribution of newspapers is but to admit that the quality of the publication is not merit-

FREE PAPERS OF OKLAHOMA CITY DEAD.

The free newspaper war at Oklahoma City is over. After a year of fierce conflict both free dailies have quit business. It cost all the papers of the city like blazes—something over $100,000 all told, and no one was benefitted. The city really suffered by the war, for these free papers were not circulated outside the corporate limits, and the city lost all the advertising and boosting it would have received from legitimate papers. The passing of these sheets just about marks the end of free papers in Oklahoma. They have failed where ever tried and will continue to do so.
What is needed in Oklahoma is not more papers but stronger and better supported ones. That is the class that builds up any state or community, while weak and poorly supported ones only tear down and demoralize them.

Oklahoma City has had five daily papers, while Philadelphia with a population of nearly 2,000,000 has but six. Hereafter the Oklahoman, Times and News will have the field, and it is a safe prediction that business in every line will improve.

The News makes its bow to the editor of the Francis Wigwam as having one of the longest heads of any editor of this section. About two weeks ago the News published a column article setting forth the value of the Frisco shops to Ada and offering suggestions about going after them. Now, some editors we know would have rolled up their sleeves, dipped their pen in gall and brimstone and handed the News a page of vituperation. Our brother at Francis did nothing of the kind. By way of poking fun at us and showing how utterly impossible it would be for Ada to capture the shops from Francis, he takes up the article and by substituting cement plant for railroad shops, and Francis for Ada, he reproduces it in full. Pretty good, and far more effective than a string of hot adjectives.

Interest in the presidential race of next year is growing. However, the interest in the nominees is rather one sided, for Taft has the republican nomination in his vest pocket. The fight among the democratic aspirants has simmered down to three—Wilson, Harmon and Clark. Just at present Harmon is the most active, and his committee is sending out thousands of pieces of literature. This will undoubtedly have some effect, for there is no denying the fact that as a governor Harmon has made good. However, it requires a two-thirds majority in the convention to nominate, and if he and Wilson divide the strength in the East to any extent, Champ Clark will stand a fine chance of capturing the plum.

H. M. Butler, after editing the Grove Sun for a period of ten months is again holding down the editorial nail keg of the Allen Hustler. If he had consulted us about it, we would have told him how useless it was to leave Pontotoc county, for all wise men who ever lived within its borders come back. They simply can't find another spot equal to this county, no matter where they go. Mr. Butler is an able wielder of the pen, and the News welcomes him back home.

E. P. McCabe, the negro who held the office of assistant state auditor of Oklahoma during the palmy days of Republican rule, and who was prominent in the party councils of those times, has again been heard from. He is now head waiter in a summer hotel near Chicago. In his earlier days McCabe was state auditor of Kansas for two terms. He is now engaged in fighting the Jim Crow law of Oklahoma.

France's Low Birth Rate.

The population of France in 1910 was 39,252,245. An official report on that country's vital statistics shows that there were 309,289 marriages during the year, 13,049 divorces, 774-358 children born, and a total of 703-777 deaths. The net excess of births over deaths was accordingly 70,581.

In the previous year the excess of births over deaths was only 13,424, but the decided improvement shown in the figures for the later year was largely due to a decrease of 52,768 deaths in 1910. In the valleys of the Rhone and Garonne the death rate exceeded that of the births.

In view of the national uneasiness over the French birth rate, which has at times resulted in legislation designed to encourage large families, it is interesting to compare France's rate with that of five other leading European countries. For the five-year period from 1901 to 1905, inclusive the number of births per 1000 of population was as follows: In Holland, 155; in Germany, 149; in Great Britain, 121; in Austria, 113; in Italy, 106, and in France, 18.

WHAT RIGHT FARMING

METHODS WILL DO

Idaho Falls, Idaho, Aug. 28.—That dry farming methods, when properly followed, are successful has just been demonstrated by Profs. Briggs, Kearney and Shantz, of the Department of Agriculture, who in behalf of the department, have completed an investigation of the dry farms in this valley. Prof. Briggs, before leaving this city, stated that in all of the travels of the committee it has not seen either irrigated or non-irrigated farming which produced better results than were to be found on the dry farms here, in the face of the fact that the year has been one of severe drought.

The Woodsmansee and Webster farm of 5000 acres is producing 2,400 acres of Turkey red wheat, that will average not less than 40 bushels when threshed. This result is obtained under dry farming tillage methods, and the use of 30 pounds of seed to the acre.

Mr. C. H. Woodsmansee of Rexburg Idaho, one of the owners of this ranch, has been invited to address The Sixth International Dry Farming Congress to be held in Colorado Springs, October 16 to 20, explaining the methods, both of tillage and business, utilized on the great ranch of this company. The company will also make an exhibit at the exposition held in connection with the congress. Mr. Woodsmansee is said to be one of the most exacting farm operators in the West, and is able to tell at the close of each year to a fraction of a cent the cost of ploughing, harvesting and handling his crop.

In this vicinity the government men found 50,000 acres of dry land growing grain that will run from 30 to 50 bushels to the acre. In addition to this, the valley is now harvesting 150,000 acres of diversified dry-farmed crops, all of which are producing heavily. The valley already has about 200,000 acres of dry farmed land under what is known as summer tillage or fallow which will be seeded this fall.

Togo Going Back to Japan.

an uneventful Sunday, Admiral Count Togo, Japanese naval hero, is schedfor a farewell visit to the United States before sailing for Japan.

While not exactly official, the visit will be far from informal. Togo will be escorted to Seattle and entertained at breakfast by a delegation of Japanese headed by Consul Leucht Takahashi, who went to Victoria Sunday to meet him. He then will receive a formal call from Rear Admiral W. H. H. Southerland, Commander of the second division of the Pacific fleet, whose flagship, the cruiser West Virginia, accompanied by the cruiser Colorado, will escort the admiral to sea when he sails Tuesday.

The admiral will call upon Mayor George W. Dilling and attend a reception tendered by Consul Takahashi.
A number of minor functions will fill out his day.

Ardmore After More Water.

Ardmore, Okla., August 28.—The City commissioners of Ardmore have returned from a visit to Texas cities, where they investigated the deep-well system of supplying city water.
They were so well pleased with the plants they observed that they passed a resolution calling for a bond issue of $50,000 to be used in sinking deep wells to augment the supply of city water, which is now had from an artificial lake. The continued dry weather threatens the city reservoir, and the deep wells are being resorted to as an emergency supply.

Don't Be Afraid To Eat

Theories of Food Cranks Exploded--Digestit Will Digest Foods Stomachs Cannot--New Relief for Stomach Upsets.

Everybody likes to eat and eat heartily. It's natural, it's necessary to keep the body in shape. But, the trouble is we do not digest what we eat—ninety per cent of the people in this country do not properly digest food, and as many suffer the tortures of indigestion. There is a relief —a certain remedy for stomach disorders—it is the new medicine called

DIGESTIT—it digests food that stomachs cannot, tones up the digestive organs to the natural healthful condition and gives strength to the famished body by giving the proper nutrition from the food.

Your druggist can supply this new remedy, ask him for a package today, and if after taking a few doses you are not pleased with the results, tell him to give you back your money—that is the way he is authorized to sell it. If you are not willing to try it on his guaranty, write the Digestit Co., Jackson, Miss., and receive an order to any drug store for a full size 50c package without cost. Try it today—take two or three tablets after meals and see how quickly that full, stuffy feeling is relieved.

Interesting Questions Answered.

(This morning the News reporter made his usual round of the court house, and when he approached County Attorney Wimbish was handed the following typewritten notice, which was afterwards posted in the sheriff's office for the benefit of all with an inquiring turn of mind:

Notice, Read, Heed.

1st. I do not know when the county will pay off the back claims.
2nd. I do not know when or where they will hang Frank Edwards.
3d. I do not know what the judge is going to do with the Scribner boys for running off.

To Owners of Real Estate In Pontotoc County

There are frequently found, upon examination, unknown and unsuspected clouds upon the title of real estate, such as unpaid taxes, uncancelled mortgages, mechanic liens, judgments, deeds of conveyances defective in signature, in acknowledgment or description, adverse claimants, errors made by conveying officers, and innumerable other defects, any of which may exist, all unsuspected by the owner, who fondly believes his title clear, but who really knows nothing about it, because he has never had an investigation made and an abstract of title prepared. Most of these clouds and defects could be cleared and cured were their existence known in time; but they lay dormant and are not discovered until the owner is rudely awakened from his fond dream of security by some progressive speculator or purchaser offering a good round price for his property, but demanding an abstract of title as the first condition of the sale.

MORE OKLAHOMA RAILROAD TALK

Guthrie, Ok., Aug. 27.—Announcement comes from Ardmore, Waurika and other towns on the proposed extension that the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific will soon commence the construction of the extension from Ardmore south and west through the old Chickasaw Nation to Waurika, where connection will be made with the Rock Island's main line into Texas. At Ardmore direct connection will be made with the Red River line of the Frisco, which runs east from Ardmore to Hope, Ark.

In this connection, it is believed that the visit to Ardmore and Waurika during the past week of two Pere Marquette officials has to do with the early construction of the extension between these two towns. The officials were F. T. Byrne, South western freight agent for the Pere Marquette, and E. B. Woods, the traveling freight agent.

The Enid, Ochiltree and Western, which was chartered three years ago to build east from Dalhart, Tex., across the Panhandle country and Oklahoma to Enid, is again being promoted. The grade work on the road was completed last year from Dalhart east almost to the Oklahoma State line, and the attempt now being made is to take up the work at that point and continue it. It is stated that President George M. Perry of the company and J. H. Whipple, a stockholder, have been summoned to Chicago recently to close up a contract with an English syndicate which proposes to finish the road.

The first construction on the extension northward of the Wichita Falls and Northwestern (Katy) will be from Hammond, Ok., the present terminus, to Cheyenne. It is planned to have trains running into Cheyenne by Jan. 1. The Katy is furnishing the money for the extension to Woodward, and is now running trains from Dallas to Hammond, using the Wichita Falls and Northwestern from Wichita Falls, Tex., to Hammond, nearly 200 miles of track. From Cheyenne the road will be constructed northward to a crossing on the Canadian river and thence to Woodward. The Katy's intention, it is said is to build ultimately to a Denver connection somewhere in Kansas.

NEGRO KIDNAPER MAKES ESCAPE

Durant, Ok., Aug. 27.—After an all night search the posses which went out to apprehend the negro who kidnaped a child near Colbert yesterday returned this morning and reported finding no trace of the negro other than that he started toward Colbert after throwing the child in a branch. It is now thought that he caught a train near Colbert and escaped. The farmers for many miles are aroused and have armed themselves.

Anti-negro sentiment is at a high pitch. As there are many negroes in the south part of the county serious trouble is feared.

Mrs. Wilkerson is suffering from nervous prostration as the result of the scare occasioned by the negro kidnaping her child, but the infant is little the worse for the experience.

Will Round Up Elk.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 28.—Sportsmen and former cowboys from various parts of eastern Washington and central Idaho, including Edward Back and Ray Hester, formerly of the Bank of Commerce, and Roy Hoagland of Lewiston, Idaho, have gone to Jackson's Hole, Wyo., to assist the state game wardens, United States cavalry soldiers and ranchers in rounding up between 25,000 and 30,000 elk and driving them to less settled territory. Old-timers in Spokane say a round-up is a difficult task at this time of the year, but the game wardens think this is the only way to save the bands from being exterminated, as the restriction of the open range has resulted in the loss of fully 5,000 animals a year by starvation, despite the fact that fodder has been provided by ranchers in the district and the legislature of the state of Wyoming. This is the first attempt at an organized round-up of elk in America and the outcome will be watched with interest by sportsmen all over the country.

Healthy Mothers

The bearing of children is frequently followed by poor health for the mother. This supreme crisis of life finding her physical system unprepared for the demands of nature, leaves her with weakened resistive powers and sometimes chronic ailments. This can be avoided if Mother's Friend is used before the coming of baby, and the healthy woman can remain a healthy mother. It is the only remedy that perfectly and thoroughly prepares the system for healthy motherhood, and brings about a natural and easy consummation of the term. Women who use Mother's Friend are always saved much suffering when the little one arrives, and recover more quickly, and with no ill effects, or chronic troubles. Every expectant mother should safeguard her health by using Mother's Friend, thus preparing her physical condition for the hour of motherhood. This medicine is for sale at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.
